Biography

My hospitality career began in California in late 1960 at Silverado Country Club where I worked for five years. I then worked with Marriott Hotels for five years, Colonial Williamsburg for two years, at Pier House in Key West for five years and at Sonoma Mission Inn & Spa for ten years. I also owned a restaurant in the St. Croix for three years and a hospitality management consulting business for four years prior to joining Cheeca Lodge & Spa in August, 2002.

My wife, Susan, and I are happily married and reside on Lower Metacumbe Key at 76321 Overseas Highway.
